

PAX8 DISCLOSURE

Upon registering for a Pax8 event, you will receive non-promotional emails from Pax8 regarding your registration, event updates, and other information specific to your participation in the event.

In an effort to improve your event experience by delivering relevant content and by connecting you with targeted meeting opportunities, we request your permission to share your registration details (name, company, phone number, and email address only) with our event sponsors.

Following the event, attending sponsors will work closely with your Pax8 Wingman to provide you with relevant post-event resources.
